- information on the fees paid to the Statutory Auditors;
- social, societal and environmental information that makes up the Statement of Non-Financial Performance.

The registration document will be available in English at a later date.

Publication of the first annual integrated report

In addition, Icade has published an annual integrated report for the first time. This document, more strategic in scope and designed for a wide audience, provides information on Icade's value creation model which benefits its customers, partners, employees and local communities.

This annual integrated report is based on recommendations from the International Integrated Reporting Council (IIRC). Icade employees having different profiles and representing all of the company's business divisions and locations have been actively involved in its preparation. Four topics have been addressed: the major trends facing Icade, its business model, performance indicators and corporate governance.

A version accessible for visually impaired persons and an electronic annual integrated report will also be made available.

The 2018 annual integrated report and electronic annual integrated report can be viewed or downloaded from Icade's website: www.icade.fr.
